And many others-

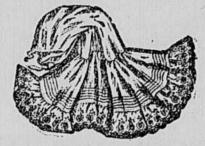

Broken lots gathered from the various departments-Lingere Shirt Waists, Underwear, Petticoats and Kimonos.

In the Basement.

Bunched on various tables; values to $1.50 at only 95c; for choice.

Social and Personal

Mrs. William Hodges Mann has had as her guests in the Executive Mansion for the past several days Mr. Sanford and Frank Mann, of New York City. Mr. Sanford and Mr. Mann left last hight for Washington and New York, and will probably sail for Europe in August. having been entertained at a number short visit, has returned to her home At the Woman's Club.

A the Woman's Club.

An informal reception was held at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock. The club pariors is at half-past 6 o'clock, in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Archer, 508 East Franklin Street. Only the nearest relatives and friends of the moarest relatives and friends of the moarest relatives and friends of the mony. Miss Archer is a daughter of the late Edwin Sheppard Archer, of Richmond, who for many years resided in Arizona, and she has made her home with her uncle, W. W. Archer, for some time past.

At the Woman's Club.

An informal reception was held at the Woman's Club pariors mean in South Carolina.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Richmond public schools, and now in South Carolina.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Richmond public schools, and now in South Carolina.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Richmond public schools, and now in South Carolina.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Woman's Club pariors.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Woman's Club pariors.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Woman's Club pariors.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, and now in the Woman's Club pariors.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, and now i

H. Pendleton Rogers, of New York, an- of the sprin

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND the Dunlop Mills Richmond Vac

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges

PETTIT & CO.'S?

The House of Fashion Bernard Frances & Co. Broad and Fifth Sts.

PIANOS And Players—the finest made, at makers' prices.

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness."

Tel. Mad. 630.

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY packing household goods and china r shipment.

Rountree-Sutherland-

Use Pratt's Astraal Oil for Incubators.

N. Klein & Son., Inc 3 East Broad.

DETROIT GAS RANGES. ALASKA REFRIGERATORS. OLD HICKORY PUBLIFURE

SOLD ONLY BY JURGENS

Ladies' Russian Calf Rubber Sole Men's Russian Calf Rubber Sole Oxfords, $3.50 to $5.00.

ight for Washington and two invited been entertained at a number of informal affairs during their stay brench, but who have been in Baltiin Richmond.

Miss Juliet Mann, who has also been more for the last ten days, are expressed at the Executive Mansion for pected the last of the week to occur while has returned to her home. Fern Cottage until the end of June. for the last ten days, are ex-with her uncle, W. W. Archer, for some time past

Expected at the Hot.

A dispatch from Hot Springs contains the following of interest to society in Richmond

"Mrs. Soth Barton French gave a luncheon Sunday at Barton Lodge for line Gray and Robert and Alfred Batcheller.

"Str. Wilfred and Lady Peek, who came to Hot Springs last week after marriage in St. Louis, spent the marriage in St. Louis, spent the marriage in St. Louis, spent the marriage in their car, which they Plano Recital.

The pupils of Miss Belle Johnson's piano class gave their linal recital on Friday afternoon at Miss Johnson's studio, 309 West Grace Street. The following program was rendered:

1. Moszkowski. . . . Spanish Dance Misses Frances and Natalie McFaden.

Miss Mary Peple. (b) Englemann 3. Offenbach

Barcarolle from Les Contes II. Miss Lorena Mason.

Coleman will tell a num ber of fairy and folk stories before the members of the Art Club of Richmond members of the Art Club of Richmond and their friends this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the club rooms. Miss Coleman is director of the Richmond Training School for Kindergartners, and is also president of the Story-Tellers' League in this city.

Following Miss Coleman's stories, tea will be served by the members of the house committee. The lectures Tuesday afternoons at the Art Club are not day afternoons at the Art Club are not simply for members alone, and all friends of the club are cordially in-yited to attend them.

Miss Stearnes's Recital.
Miss Bessle Arnold Stearnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stearnes, gave a charming plane recital in Thekla Hall, Vassar College, on the evening of May 7. Miss Stearnes is a student of Vassar College, and graduates from that institution in June.

Returned to Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Jude have returned to the city after an extended woodding trip, and are now at their home, 897 York Street, Barton Heights. Cherry Corporation Mrs. Jude was, before her marriage recently celebrated here, Miss Maude Harvey, of Highland Park.

Por Little Miss Davis.

Mrs. Zebulen Vance Hooker, of 421
West Grace Street, entertained at her home last Thursday in honor of the eighth birthday of little Miss Esther Virginia Davis. Only twelve guests were present, and the house was decoated throughout with pink roses. Those invited to mbet Miss Pavis were little Missos Gladys May Brauer, Adele Brauer, Francis Rosebro, Julia Mill-hiser, Maude Lathan Hooker, Grace S, Hofneimer, Leonora Strause, Dean Sa-bonberg and Dorothy Sabenberg.

Meetings To-Day.

The Woman's Association of St.
Paul's Church will hold its last meeting of this season this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the parish house next the church. All women of the church and their friends are cordially invited to be present, and to be prepared with suggestions for the work of the as-sociation of next year.

The Old Dominion Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet to-day at 12 noon, at 811 East Grace Street, All members are urged to be present at this meeting to-day.

Charity Affairs.

The board of managers of the Virginia Home for Incurables will hold its annual Bell Day on Friday, May 16. A number of prominent society women have charge of the affair, and they will be assisted at the various stations by groups of pretty girls. Another charity event of this week of interest to smart society is the hencilt performance to be given at the Little Theatre on Wednesday, May 14, for the Summer Rest at Greenwood,

It is to be given under fashionable patronage, and will be one of the prominent events of the week. in and Out of Town.

Miss Louise Noble, of Bridgeport, onn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs.

ames William Sharpe, in this city. Miss Maude Cooke is spending two reeks with friends in Huntington, Va., before returning to her home here Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Atkinson, o this city, are registered at the Graf-ton Hotel, in Washington.

Mrs. R. R. Powell has returned to Richmond, after visiting friends in Hernon Wilfrey has returned to his home here, after a visit to his parents, i)r, and Mrs. E. W. Wilfrey, in Cui-

Mrs. L. E. Cooke and her small granddaughter are visiting friends at Virginia Beach this week.

Mrs. Hattle Dunn, who has been spending ten days with Mrs. William Dunn, in Ashland, will return to Richmond in a few days

Miss Olive Webster has as her guest this week Miss Naomi Cunningham.

Mrs. B. B. Valentine will go to Bedford on Thursday to spend several

Miss Ann Page has returned to her ome in Hanover County, after a short visit to relatives in Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. James R. Werth, Jr.,

of Schenectady, N. Y., are visiting rela-tives here at the Chesterfield.

who have been in New York and At-lantic City, have returned to Rich-

Miss Augusta Willis Richards, of "The Maples," Winchester, is the guest of Miss Louise Poliard, in Ashland. Mrs. E. Hawes Lipscomb, who has been quite ill for several days, is able

BETTER BABY SHOW

Damage to Truck and Berries Reaches
Thousands of Pollars.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cape Charles, Va., May 12.—Northampton and Accomac Counties were visited last night by heavy frost, which did considerable damage to early corn, late berries and Irish potatoes. Frost extended as far south as Exmore, and ice as far south as Parksley.

arksley.
It was the heaviest frost in this secion for years. Garden vegetables also uffered from the effects of the frost.
I. Justice, of upper Accomac County, in extensive grower, lost 90,000 sweet otatoes. The loss to truckers and crowers in both counties will amount o thousands of dollars.

falling hair. No doubt about it whatever. You will surely be satisfied.

BRACELETS.

CAMEO BROOCHES.

Smith & Webster 805 East Main.

"Specialists in Apparel for Women.

Broad at Second.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

EAT IT THREE TIMES DAILY.

See Our 1913 Patterns of GO-CARTS and CARRIAGES.

Kothert & Fourth and Broad.

When you use the Films, let

Tragle's

$2.50 German Silver Soldered Mesh Bags; kid lined; 4inch size; sale price, $1.50.

Sale of German Silver Mesh Bags

Just about one hundred and fifty in the lot, consisting of five very handsome styles.

$2.50 German Silver Mesh Bags, $1.50.

They are the unbreakable kind and large 6-inch size, and a wonderful value

$5.00 German Silver Mesh Bags, $8.25. Large 7-inch size; kid lined, and made of finest quality soldered mesh. $4.00 German Silver Mesh Bags, $2.75. They are kid lined, best soldered mesh and large 6-inch

A-514 $3.50 German Silver Mesh Bags, $2.25. 5-inch size; kid lined, and made of fine soldered mesh

HER LIBELS ON DEAD PRINTED IN ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. C. Barksdale Lathrop. Frau Otto Brucks Does Well Not; to Publish Book on Continent.

> BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. FRAU OTTO BRUCKS, who under the name and title of Countess Larisch, that is to say, of that first husband who was compelled to divorce her, has just brought out her much-heralded book, "My Past," has beth, instead of anywhere on the Continent of Europe. For England is the only country of Europe where libels on the dead are tolerated by lawthat is to say, are not actionable. Everywhere else on the other side or the ocean slanders of this nature are verely punished, and the memory of the deceased is protected by the law. Thus, two years ago, a woman at Vienna was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for casting aspersions on Empress Maria Theresa, although the latter has been dead for near 150

Alexandre Dumas the elder had no end of trouble in connection with his historical novels, and was mulcted in heavy damages, lucky, indeed, to es-cape imprisonment, in the lawsuits instituted against him by the Marquis de Prefontaine. The latter took exception to the fact that Dumas in "La Route de Varennes" had asserted that his grandfather and namesake had refused to shelter Louis XVI, and Queen Marie Antoinette on the occasion of their flight from Paris, The court, damages, ordered all unsold copies of the book to be confiscated, and a fresh edition to be published within a month, with a special note to the effect tha the Marquis de Prefontaine who flour-ished at the end of the eighteenth century, far from refusing shelter, had harbored the royal fugitives. Dumas was more fortunate in the quis d'Epinay St. Luc, for some derog-atory references 40 Francis de St. Luc, in his novel "La Dame de Monsoreau." In this case it was decided that inasmuch as 250 years had claps-Over the Good Results Obtained ed since the death of Francois de St Luc, there was not sufficient evidence available to clear his reputation from the aspersions to which it had been

The children of the late Baron do Renzis, who achieved so much popularity as Italian embassador in London. sued, with success, the playwright Ferruggia, in the Italian courts, for Amata Desclee," on the ground that it portrayed certain painful episodes of their father's life. Indeed, he was compelled to withdraw it. The play represented the late Baron de Renzls, while A. D. C. to the Re Galant Tomo, as the object of the one serious affection in the life of Mile. Desciee, the most famous French actress of the nineteenth century. It shows how Alexandre Dumas the younger won her away from the baron, induced her to return to Paris, where she became once more the idot of the public. She is sad and discouraged, however, as her "Fan-Fan," as she nicknamed her beloved baron, is far away in Italy and does not write.

In the rehearsal of the "Viste de Noces," Dumas is not satisfied with the effect of a scena in which the actress was to portray a sense of indignation at the breaking off of a love affair. At this particular moment a letter arrives and is handed to Des-clee, announcing the marriage of Baron de Renzis, and in her first mo-Baron de Renzis, and in her first mo-ment of bitter resentment the actress triumphantly carries out the idea of the author of the "Visite de Noces," Dumas is raidant. "It means my life!" exclaims Desclee, in despair, "Where-upon Dumas selfishly replies, "What matters it, as long as the play is a success?"

The baron, whose memoirs are of the most interesting character, beguished in literature as he had been successful as a soldier, in his early years. He also dabbled in journalism founding the Fanfulla, now one of the most popular and influential news-papers in Italy. The early files there-of, when he was in immediate charge, and did most of the writings, are most brilliant and witty.

Not so long ago a M. de Bertier de Sauvigny successfully sued Armano Dayot, in the French courts, for an alleged libel on his grandfather, Ber-tier de Sauvigny, chamberlain of the city of Paris at the outbreak of the first revolution. Dayot, who is a well-known author and an expert on are matters, brought out a series of Il-lustrated albums, on French history entitled "Les Albums Illustres," Un-der the pictures representing Toulon, Comptroller General of the Treasury and Bertler de Sauvigny, both of whom were hanged to lampposts by the mon were hanged to lampposts by the mon shortly after the taking of the Bastille, the letterpress contained a few re-marks to the effect that the two men richly deserved hanging, de Sauvigny in particular being described as a "villain." Dayot in his defense quot-ed text from other historians, notably, Michelet, in justification of his re-marks. But the plaintin persisted in his suit for the liber of his grandfather, and won the day.

Lord Francis Hope's decision to sell the famous estate of Deepdene, his has never been able to inhabit himself, owing to the expense of keep ing it up, is easy to understand. For it is heavily mortgaged, yields him no income, and renders him liable for taxes, which have become mere heavy Deepdene first came into note in 1655 as the retreat of the Hon, Charles been prudent, in publishing in London her shameful calumnies of her benefactory, the murdered Empress Elizatives, the murdered Empress Elizatives, the murdered Empress Elizatives of Charles while in the possession of Charles in the possession of Ch Howard, younger son of Henry, Earl Howard that it attracted the notice of Evelyn, who relates how he traveled specially from London to Dorking to Removal of all showcases see "Mr. Charles Howard's amphithea- and Main Streets back to tro garden," by the beauty of which he professed to be enchanted. Howard chemist, and constructed in the grounds two subterranean laboratories. Like the late Duke of Portland.

place to Sir William Burrell, and from his family it passed by purchase to Inundry boxes as anywhere else, as It was just one obstruction after anbranch of the great Scotch house of Hope. Both he and his son, Henry Hope, got together at Deepdene a most Support collection of art treasures and two there have no proposed as a substitute that the passes he referred to

MRS. MELHORN ENTUSIASTIC

From the Use of Cardui. The Woman's Tonic town, Mrs. M. Melhorn says: "I was putting on the stage at the Manzoni in very bad health last year, and did not recover as enickly as I chevil not recover as quickly as I should. I ached all over, and would often have a headache for a whole week at the time. I would almost go crazy. Judge R. Carter Scott Refuses I was so weak, and felt so tired I could hardly walk across the room. My doctor said I would never get

I feel like a new woman already.

old, and would not give it for any and Headache is one of the most com-mon symptoms of womanly trouble.

Backache alder womanly trouble.

The counsel for the railroad company, to prepare a decree in ac-cordance with the views expressed from the bench. Backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, weak, tired feeling, are others.

toms, don't neglect them—do as Mrs.

Melhorn advises—take Cardui, the attempting to collect taxes from the Cardul is a purely vegetable, gen-

Give Cardui a trial. N. B .- Write to: Ladles' Advisory

Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.—Advertisement.

J. B. Mosby & Co. SUITS At Special Prices

pent an immense amount of money in still further beautifying it. Lord Bea-consfield in his younger days was a frequent visitor, and it was there that he wrote at least three of his novels, notably, "Coningaby," which contains notably, "Coningsby," which contains a most picturesque description of the place. Henry Hope left all his vast property to his wife, a daughter of Lord Decies, and she, in turn, when she passed away, bequeathed Deepdene, as well as the famous Hope diamond, and a very large fortune, to her grandson, Lord Francis Pelham Clinton, younger, son, of her only Clinton, younger son of her only daughter, the late Dowages Duchess of Newcastle, on the condition that he should assume the name of Hope.

Lord Francis Hope has been twice married: first to May Yohe, the American music hall artiste, from whom he was subsequently obliged to obtain a divergent divorce, and after that to an Austra-lian woman, now dead, and by whom he has two boys. He is next heir to the honors and estates of his only brother, the childless Duke of Newcastle, and, like him, is lame, But whereas the duke's affliction dates from his birth, and necessitated his being provided with a pony chaise death of five-year-old Alice Elizabeth while at Eton, the lameness of Lord Poh, who was killed by a street car Francis comes from his having lost his leg a few years ago through the langerous wound inflicted by the accidental discharge of a gun by his manservant, while staying at Packington Hall, and which necessitated the little girl came to her death by Lord Francis has been very extravagant, and has squandered most of the fortune left to him by his grandmother. He managed to obtain permission from the courts to sell the Blue Diamond, which he had inherited from her, as well as her other tewelry. from her, as well as her other jewelry, and also many of the art treasures

Main Streets Should Be Opened to Traffic.

Removal of all showcases from Broad erty line was warmly advocated by several members of the Committee on an enthusiastic experimental streets yesterday afternoon, though its, and constructed in the belief was expressed that the indigence of certain merchants would be sufficient to defeat the passage of the street would have been dangerous for a grown person. He said he could not understand why the motorman had failed to see the child, but added that he bore him not the he was very fond of burrowins, and such an ordinance by the City Council, inaugurated the construction of a tunnel through a hill on the property, so that he could pass through it and view the neighboring county of Sussex to the south, without troubling to ascend the eminence. When the tunnel was almost on the point of completion the roof fell in. Luckily the men were at their noonday meal. He was so much moved by their narrow escape that he abandoned the undertaking.

The tenth Duke of Norfolk sold the place to Sir William Burrell, and from his family it passed by purchase to Thomas Hope, of the Amsterdam superb collection of art treasures, and tute that the papers be referred to the City Attorney, to be so drafted as to provide that no permits for showcases or other obstructions beyond the property line were to be granted on Broad or Main Streets. Several mem-bers highly approved of the idea, but doubted whether the Council would be able to withstand the pressure the merchants would bring in behalf of their encroachments. After a discussion, which was all one way, as to the desirability of clearing the business streets of all obstructions, the whole general subject, together with the pending ordinance, was referred to a subcommittee consisting of Messrs.

Powers, Puller and Vonderlehr. Johns, Ala.—In a letter from this LANGHORNE LOSES

Injunction Against Compromise Settlement.

well without an operation, but I decided to try Cardui, the woman's Potomac Railroad Company from paying over to the State certain money I have only taken four bottles, and feel like a new woman already.

I recommend Cardui for young and old, and would not give it for any large transported by Judge R. Carter Scott, in the City Circuit Court yesterday. Judge Scott announced his decision verbally, and instructed Messrs. Braxton and Eggleston, coursel for the religious. Eggleston, counsel for the railroad thers.

If you have any of the above sympLaughorne was represented by Page woman's tonic. She knows what it will do, for it made her well after she had tried other treatments in session of the General Assembly authorized the control of the thorized the appointment of a commis-sion to negotiate with the railroad for a compromise settlement in regard to tle-acting woman's tonic, that has been successfully used for more than 50 years.

It will help you, just as it has helped thousands of other women in this time.

Give Cardul a trial.

Gardin is a purely vegetable, genback taxes, with the understanding that the railroad will hereafter be assessed like other railroad property in the State. After much negotiation a tentative agreement was reached and submitted to the stockholders of the railroad.

C. D. Langhorne, as a minority stockholder, with the consent if not stockholder, with the consent if not part of the stockholder.

C. D. Langhorne, as a minority stockholder, with the consent, if not the approval, of the railroad company, undertook to contest the settlement. He held that the railroad was exempt from taxation under its charter, and that any combromise settlement, what-ever its terms, was an improper diver-sion of the funds of the company. He ston of the funds of the company. He, therefore, applied to Judge Scott some weeks ago for an Injunction restraining William H. White, president; Norman Call, secretary; D. Kemper, treasurer, and other officials and agents of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company, the Auditor and Treasurer of Virginia, and the officials of the various counties and cities through which the road operator form through which the road operates, from paying or accepting the proposed compromise. Judge Scott yesterday dismissed the petition for injunction, sustaining the action of the commission appointed by the last General Assembly to compromise the lay compromise the lay action. bly to compromise the tax matter. A written decree will be prepared and entered shortly, after which the usual steps looking to an appeal will be taken. The railroad company tacitly approved of the test suit brought by Mr. Langhorne, in order that the courts might finally pass on the points of law involved on the compromise set-element agreed upon tlement agreed upon.

Diamond Rings We mount every Diamond sold by us, and its quality is guaranteed to be the

Let us show you that we can save

SCHWARZSCHILD BROS., Richmond's Lending Jewelers. Second and Broad Sts.

JURY UNABLE TO FIX THE BLAME

Noncommittal Verdict Returned at Inquest Into Death of Alice Poh.

The coroner's jury, which yesterday morning conducted an inquest into the being run over by a street car in charge of W. M. Staton and V. M. Davis. There was no testimony to der in Police Court to-day or to-morand also many of the art treasures which she bequeathed to him, But it is only now that he has succeeded in obtaining permission to dispose of Deepdene.

(Copyright, 1812, by the Brentwood Company.)

MAY CLEAR AWAY

ALL SHOWCASES

der in Police Court to-day or to-morance. Many witnesses were placed on the stand and examined by Coroner Taylor and Attorney A. B. Guigon, of the Virginia Rallway and Power Company. Almost without exception, they testified that the car was running slowly, exonerating the motorman from the charge of recklessness. Staton himself did not care to take the stand, although the Coroner suggested that his testimony might be of importance. Mr. Guigon said that it would be useless cruelty to force the motorman to recount the details of the horrible accident.

cautious about crossing the car tracks in front of his home, and was never known to attempt the crossing when a car was in sight. He said, however, that at the time of the accident. Robinson Street was badly congested with cars going to and from the recreation games in William Byrd Park, and slightest animosity.

Correct Glasses

us at once. We examine your eyes and guarantee a correct fit, as we employ only expert opticians and give the best service

Jeweler and Optician.

SEVENTH AND MAIN STREETS.

The Latest in Ice Cream and Cakes from Shepherd's New Factory

2008 W. Broad St.

Call Mad. 7148

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET MILLINERY-Women's and Misses' Outer Apparei.

Ladies' Tan Rubber Sole

Oxfords, $2.25. ALBERT STEIN Corner 5th and Broad

PURITY ICE CREAM Monroe 1861.